

LIVERPOOL SAILING CLUB

Advance Notice

A Maritime Passage starting on the Mersey

An evening talk by ROD PACE

“The passage starts on the Pierhead as a three year old, and then learning how to sail at LSC as a boy of 10, which leads to a lifetime of maritime adventure.”

Friday 2nd March 2018

Rod has had a lifetime at sea, and is the recently retired Operations Manager of Moelfre Lifeboat, having previously served as Coxswain of the All-Weather Lifeboat, and before that their Senior ILB Helmsman.

Rod is also one of our erstwhile Junior Members from the very earliest days of the club, possibly indeed a Founder Member, and although he now lives on Annglesey he is still a Life Member of the club.

This promises to be a fascinating evening.

Both as a social occasion for all and for the convenience of those travelling from a distance we will be providing a meal before the talk.

Further details, including arrangements for the meal, and cost, will be circulated around the end of January, and bookings taken from that time.

Meanwhile you may like to make a note of the event in your diary!

Rod, as a teenager, with Ann Roberts, launching Graduate 295 in 1964.

Aged a bit since then, of course, as we all have.

Ann was his regular crew, and was the daughter of Bert Roberts, one of the leading club members of the day.
