Amendments

Long Series 1, April 9th

2017-03

The sailing committee has decided to put back the start of the long series from 08:00 UTC to 09:30 UTC (10:30 BST). This allows more time to lock out, and reduce the amount of time on the water.

We will look in detail at the other long series races and low water series to see if they too will benefit from being pushed back
